

The ZBS Wireless wall mount controller is the first of its kind to have wireless scene control along with dimming functions. This H.A 1.2 compatible unit controls lighting fixtures wirelessly using a unique 8 button touch panel.

Fitting into a standard receptacle this ZigBee compliant switch provides seamless, smooth dimming, easy

Controls

The Lynxus Room Control provides all of the functions of a standard wall switch with the added features of scene control and dimming, all without additional wiring. Occupants can manually adjust lighting levels to save energy, increase comfort or tailor illumination for specific mood. Users can also choose from (4) pre-programmed settings either manually, via cell or through the browser-based software. Customization is just

Lighting Control at Your Finger Tips

- Change illumination and lighting configurations
- Single device can manage up to 100 fixtures
- Groups of fixtures can behave in concert
- Offers flexibility of pre-sets up to four different scenes and light levels
- Installs easily in existing junction boxes

Simple and Low-Cost Installation.

Lynxus Controls are designed for standard wall plates, completely self-contained and requiring no external power or low voltage wiring, the Lynxus Control installs easily on room walls or over existing junction boxes.

Intuitive Control

Lynxus wireless enable occupants to brighten and dim lights, as well as cycle through lighting scenes, all without leaving their environment. In addition, when a space is unoccupied for a period of time, Lynxus restores

Our Partners

Paas Cloud

Eco Partner of

